CARDINAL LEO'S MESSAGE FOR CANADA DAY

In his 2026 Canada Day message, Cardinal Frank Leo invites the faithful to celebrate our country with gratitude while also reflecting more deeply on who we are becoming as individuals and as a nation. He highlights the importance of truth, human dignity, and a shared commitment to the common good, reminding us that the future of our country is shaped not only by policies, but by the values we choose to live each day.

All parishioners are encouraged to read the Cardinal's full message and reflect on its call to faith, unity, and renewal: Read the full message
