Slowly (and out loud if possible) read the mandate Jesus has given His followers:

¹⁸ Jesus came and told his disciples, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth.

¹⁹ Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. ²⁰ Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:18-20 (NLT)

What does it mean to you that Jesus has "all authority in heaven and on earth"?

Given this reality, what rank should His instructions have in my life's priorities?

Being honest, what gets in the way of my operating as if this is true?

What is it about the idea of taking responsibility to motivate people in my sphere of influence to accept Jesus that is encouraging? Frightening? Confusing?

What could I do this week to invest in people around me who don't yet know Jesus?

What can I begin to do to inspire others to want to follow Him?

Jesus has given all His followers all we need to live successful lives.

We have a simple goal that is direct and clear.

"To help all people become fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ."

We have a game plan that is also direct and clear.

All of us can invest and inspire.
