Your Plan “A” not working is not the end of the story.

⁹We can make our plans, but the LORD determines our steps.

Proverbs 16:9 (NLT)

God meets us in the detour, not just the destination.

²⁸And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.

Romans 8:28 (NLT)

No one’s relationship or life is as perfect as it looks.

Healing has to come before forward motion.

¹¹“For I know the plans I have for you,” says the LORD. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.”

Jeremiah 29:11 (NLT)

Where in your life has a “Plan A” recently fallen apart? Do you believe that’s the end of your story, or the start of a new chapter God is writing?

Looking back at a hard season, can you spot ways God was providing for you in the wandering, not just at the destination? What would it look like to expect His presence in your current detour?

Is there something you’ve kept moving on top of instead of resting and dealing with? What’s kept you from stopping to heal it?

Jeremiah 29:11 says God’s plans are for good, not disaster. What would change this week if you actually lived like you believed that, even while your current plan feels broken?
