Take some time to read these three passages we focused on today. Underline the words and phrases that stand out to you as you read.

²⁸ Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light."

Matthew 11:28–30 (NLT)

What burdens are you carrying right now that Jesus is inviting you to bring to Him?

What does it mean to "take His yoke" and let Him teach you?

Where do you need rest—not just physically, but in your soul?

¹³ I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living! ¹⁴ Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!

Psalm 27:13–14 (ESV)

Where in your life are you being asked to wait?

How can you take courage while you wait?

Do you truly believe you will see God's goodness—even now, in this season?

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessings if we don't give up.

Galatians 6:9 (NLT)

In what area of life are you feeling tired or discouraged?

What would it look like to stay faithful and not give up?

What "harvest" are you hoping and praying for?

Which part of today's study do you need most right now—coming to Jesus, waiting on Him, or not giving up?

They were completely amazed and said again and again, "Everything he does is wonderful. He even makes the deaf to hear and gives speech to those who cannot speak."

Mark 7:37 (NLT)

Jesus is still present, and we can still encounter Him.

There are moments when everything in you wants to give up. Jesus is more amazing—and He often shows Himself even louder in those very moments.

²⁸ Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light."

Matthew 11:28–30 (NLT)

Jesus is amazing—but to experience Him, you first need to come to Him.

Jesus isn't looking for perfect people—He's looking for willing people.

Psalms 27:13–14 (ESV)

Waiting means trusting—even if you don't see the answer right away, God is still at work.

Jesus is amazing—and sometimes, the most powerful way He shows that is in the waiting.

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessings if we don't give up.

Galatians 6:9 (NLT)

Jesus is amazing—not just because of what He can do, but because of who He is in the waiting.

Jesus is amazing—and He's not finished with you yet.

Jesus is amazing.

Every encounter with Jesus has the power to amaze and transform.
