As we grow in our faith, we discover that God will provide us everything we need...period. Discontent comes when we allow our desires to become expectations and then settle into demands that God come through a certain way for us.

Take some time to reflect on the following passage from this week's message. Let God speak to you about how He wants to marshal His power and resources for your good, as you "make every effort" to lay hold of His promises.

³ By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence. ⁴ And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires. ⁵ In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises. Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge, ⁶ and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness, ⁷ and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone.
