“A Woman After God’s Own Heart” Week 1

Elizabeth George and Debbie Stuart

1 Thessalonians 5:14-17:

- Warn those who are idle and disruptive...lazy, stuck, distracted, confused
- Encourage those who are disheartened...saddened, overwhelmed, tired
- Help/Uphold the weak...struggling, lost, broken

1 Thessalonians 5:14-17 (The Message)

“Our counsel is that you warn the freeloaders to get a move on. Gently encourage the stragglers, and reach out for the exhausted, pulling them to their feet. Be patient with each person, attentive to individual needs. And be careful that when you get on each other’s nerves you don’t snap at each other. Look for the best in each other, and always do your best to bring it out.”

Acts 13:22

“But God removed Saul and replaced him with David, a man about whom God said, ‘I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.’” NLT

“A man after God’s own heart” is first mentioned in 1 Samuel 13:14

A Woman After God’s Own Heart Will:

1. Be _____ in her _____.
2. Be _____.

GROUP DISCUSSION:

I Chronicles 28:9

“And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve Him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands every desire and every thought. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever.” (NIV)

1. What is the Lord asking of you?
2. What does wholehearted devotion and willing mind look like?
3. What else is important in this verse to you?
