Vision Leak

The focus for this year is "to hear 'Well done my faithful servant'". But well done at what? What did I do, or what am I supposed to be doing that will be considered having been done well? That's a mouthful!

Here's a hint it's not attendance or duty or ritual. It is stewardship. How have you stewarded this gift of life that God has given you? How have you stewarded the amazing message of the gospel of Jesus? Most importantly, how have you stewarded the mundane moments of life?

A friend said to me, "I'm not trying to start a movement, just trying to help others see the daily opportunity." That wasn't an exact quote, but it was pretty close. We realize that perhaps Americans have Movement fatigue. Everything needs to be grand, coordinated, global, maximum attended effort. But what about that simple moment when God says, "help that guy shovel snow." Or smile and be polite to the person behind the counter. Or just say hello to your neighbor and ask how things are going for them. These are the moments we are given every day. Moments that create opportunities to share the love of Jesus without necessarily leading them to salvation.

Every conversation won't end in a confession of faith and baptism. But every conversation will begin with taking advantage of a moment to love as Christ loved. Only then will we hear... "Well done, my faithful servant."
