

Vision Leak

Isaiah 43:18-19a

"Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?"

Just as life springs out of the trees and the ground, God was telling Israel that He was about to bring forth a new way—a new covenant. His instructions were to forget what was and behold what was about to be.

This seems like an impossible ideal without trust. If we don't trust the Lord, then we won't allow Him to do new works in our lives. However, when we remember that God is good, loving, and righteous, it becomes easier to place our trust in Him. Why? Because we know that His ways are better than our ways.

God is doing a new work in our church. I'm not talking about the renovations, though that is a piece of the newness. I believe God is transforming hearts and minds, bringing them into closer fellowship with Him. The Lord is showing us how to be His imitators. He is laying out a path to make us a church "full of little Christs." To get to that place will require us to allow His new thing to spring forth from our hearts. If we have ears, we will hear it; if we have eyes, we will see it.

We thank You, Lord, for the beautiful, rich history of our past. We praise You in advance for the glorious work You have planned for our future. Please do something new in us this spring, Jesus.
