

Vision Leak

We are truly stepping into something new this spring. We embraced February with fasting and prayer for healing. Now we step into March voting on our renovation designs and taking the next step into embracing the vision for West W'boro! But how are renovations part of our vision?

1. Can renovations make disciples?

Yes, renovations can shape disciples by testing our character, refocusing our vision on Jesus, and creating a space that invites both current and future believers to claim it as our church rather than someone else's legacy (cf. John 14:2).

2. Can renovations help us pursue the Lord?

Yes, when renovations are guided by faithful stewardship, they become an intentional way to pursue the Lord by using HIS building more effectively for HIS kingdom.

3. Can renovations help us engage the community?

Yes, thoughtful and flexible renovations can remove barriers, create welcoming spaces for community use, and communicate that we care about people enough to remove obstacles that might keep them from Jesus.

4. Can renovations help us transform lives with God's love?

No, buildings do not transform lives, but renovations can open hearts to encounter God's love through His people, which is what truly transforms lives.
