2. What reservations do you have about starting a new church? Are your reservations Biblically supported?
3. If you have reservations about IBC planting a new church here in Port Angeles: are you engaging this process in a spirit of unity & edification for the body and its leadership?
4. What role is Jesus asking you (your family) to play in this pursuit? How did you come to this conclusion?
5. In what way can the pastoral staff help you in this time of change? Would you be willing to contact a pastor to process further?
