Matthew 18:21-35
Sermon Discussion Questions

Please take a few minutes after the service today to discuss together the following questions with whom you are gathered.

1. What stands out to you most about the contrast between the debt the king forgave and the debt the fellow servant owed? What is Jesus teaching through that contrast?
2. Why do you think the forgiven servant was unwilling to forgive someone else? What does that reveal about his understanding of the mercy he had received?
3. How does remembering the enormous debt God has forgiven us in Christ change the way we view those who have sinned against us?
4. What makes forgiveness difficult in real life? How can we forgive someone while still acknowledging that what they did was wrong?
5. Is there a relationship or situation where God may be calling you to take a step toward forgiveness or reconciliation this week? What might that step look like?
