

Declaration Against Average

Today, I reject the spirit of average.

I refuse to settle for less than what God has called me to become.

I will not lower my standards to fit into a culture that celebrates comfort over commitment or convenience over excellence.

I declare that I will give God my first and my best.

My worship will be sincere, my work will be excellent,
my character will be authentic,
and my obedience will be complete.

I choose faith over fear, discipline over excuses,
and purpose over popularity.

I will not compare myself to others or compete with the opinions of people.
My goal is to live in a way that pleases God.

I declare that average will not define my life.
Mediocrity will not shape my decisions.
Excellence is not about perfection—it is about honoring God with everything He has entrusted to me.

Like Abel, may my life speak long after I'm gone.
May my faith be evident, my devotion be genuine,
and my obedience bring glory to God.

From this day forward, I choose God's standard over the world's expectations.

I will pursue excellence because my God deserves nothing less.

In Jesus' name, Amen.
