Invitation to the Table

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And, also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise...

One: There is something more,
All: Or something missing,
 One: That sends us searching in the dark,
All: Looking for answers,
 One: Risking a question.
All: We are drawn here
 One: Because God called us,
All: Gave us hope,
 One: Whispered our name.
All: Here in this place,
 One: We journey toward grace
All: And know the "something more"
 One: Is revealed in the love of Jesus.

Confession

Call to Confession

Unison Prayer of Confession

Divine Companion, you meet us every day, in the ordinary moments of encounter, in the common hungers of life. Yet, how often we miss you, failing to look deep enough, failing to stay long enough, failing to hear clear enough.

We confess to setting up narrow boundaries, maintaining established prejudices, refusing to shift perceptions and thus miss the new thing you are doing.

In this season of life, send your living water to wear away our rocklike defenses. Let our thirst for truth take us to the heart of God, to the healing river.

Forgive us as we silently confess our sins and short-comings to you...
(Please take a moment for silent confession.)

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.
