Church Members

Dust off your bench, stand up, and volunteer to help our church to continue moving forward! We have a place for you to get involved. The committees listed below will need new people to begin in January 2026, allowing those that have been serving for the last 3 years to roll off. These positions require that you are a member, and will serve for 3 years. This is your opportunity to insert your body, soul, and mind into our church family. Please let us know where you would prefer to pursue your committee journey. List your first and second choices.
