SELMA CAMPUS NOW OPEN!

SUNDAYS

10:00am | 11:45am

In-Person & Online

2050 Arrants St.
Selma, CA 93662

Our leadership has been blessed with the ability to recognize the season we're in. Growth has been knocking at our door, and thankfully, we've invited it in. We've chosen to be intentional by saying yes to another campus.

On August 9, 2026, we launched Koinonia Selma. It has been a beautiful, yet bumpy road, but we are up and running now! A new campus means new growth, and not just numerically. I've watched many people on our teams step into new leadership roles and be stretched in their gifting. It's been an intimidating process at times, but it has also displayed the courage and strength of our church body. I'm proud to be a Koinonian!

As our team is stretched in new ways, I'm beginning to see ministry in a new light. Ministry isn't just something the church does; ministry is one of the ways God forms who we are becoming. Big ministries can be awesome, but ministries that build "big" people are even better.

It's amazing how saying yes to God has two sides to it. Our yes builds the Kingdom of God, but at the same time, God uses our yes to build us.

I'm thankful for everyone who has said yes, stepped up, been stretched, and embraced the tension that comes with growth. I'm confident we will continue to be a house that says yes to growth—in every way God brings it.
