

ROMANS

THE FAITHFULNESS OF GOD

Read Romans 1:1-6 together.

Review

As we conclude our study in the book of Romans, reflect on the first paragraph of Paul's letter: God has fulfilled his promises through Jesus, not just for the Jews, but for all humanity who comes to kneel at the cross. Jesus invites all people to be a part of what God is doing in redeeming his creation.

Discussion Questions

1. After studying Romans, what do you feel was Paul's primary message to the church in Rome? Is that different or the same as it was before?
2. In what ways has God been faithful to all humanity? In what ways has he been faithful to you?
3. How might the church reflect better the sort of love, unity, and growth that Paul is pushing us to strive for in this letter?
