Veteran's Day Appreciation Luncheon!

Many thanks to all those who organized and assisted with the Mass and appreciation luncheon for our veterans. Your efforts to bring attention to the service of our veterans is greatly appreciated. We would also like to thank our veterans who served our country bravely and selflessly; may God continue to bless you and our beloved United States of America.

Religious Education Update!

Our 1st grade class, taught by Toni Chavez and Annette Madrid, have been learning much about their faith. However, they have also been creating cards for the elderly in our retirement communities as well as cards for our veterans, providing them with support and love. This is such a wonderful exercise in loving our neighbors. Keep up the good work and God bless you all!

Attending a Christmas Eve Mass does meet your obligation to attend a Christmas Day Mass. However, because Christmas Eve lands on a Sunday, you must still attend a Sunday Mass to meet the Sunday obligation. Asistir a una Misa de Nochebuena cumple con su obligación de asistir a una Misa del día de Navidad.
