14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

14 domingo en tiempo ordinario

Welcome to Sacred Heart Church, where we embrace each other as family, just as Jesus taught us to love one another and share each other's burdens. We strive each day to grow a little kinder, a little better, guided by the light of our faith. We are thrilled to extend our warmest greetings to you as you join our community. We make it our mission to make you feel at home, starting with reserving you a seat among us. We invite you to explore our website or stop by the church office to learn more about how you can become an integral part of our parish family. We look forward to getting to know you and journeying together in faith. Remember Sacred Heart in your will!

Bienvenidos a la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón, donde nos abrazamos como familia, así como Jesús nos enseñó a amarnos los unos a los otros y compartir las cargas de los demás. Aquí nos esforzamos cada día por ser un poco más amables, un poco mejores, guiados por la luz de nuestra fe. Estamos encantados de extenderle nuestros más cordiales saludos al unirse a nuestra comunidad. Nuestra misión es hacerle sentir como en casa, empezando por reservar un asiento entre nosotros. Lo invitamos a explorar nuestro pagina web o pasar por la oficina de la iglesia para obtener más información sobre cómo puede convertirse en una parte integral de nuestra familia parroquial. Esperamos conocerle y caminar juntos en la fe. ¡Recuerda el Sagrado Corazón en tu testamento!

Saint of the Day

St. Palladius

From sanctoral.com, 2022

The name Palladius marks Saint Palladius as a Roman; and a seventh century Irish biography of Saint Patrick identifies him as Archdeacon of the Roman Church under Pope Celestine. Saint Prosper of Aquitaine, his contemporary, informs us in his historical chronicle that when Agricola, a noted Pelagian, had corrupted the churches of Britain by introducing that pestilential heresy, Pope Celestine, at the instance of Palladius the deacon, in 429 sent there Saint Germanus, Bishop of Auxerre, as his legate. He, after having ejected the heretics, brought back the Britons to the Catholic faith.

The same Pope sent Palladius to the Celts. The Irish writer of the life of Saint Patrick says that Palladius preached in Ireland some time before Saint Patrick, but that he was soon sent away by the King of Leinster and returned to North Britain, where he had opened his mission. Saint Prosper says that he was consecrated bishop by the same Pope Celestine, and then sent with relics of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, as first bishop to the nation of the Christian Scots. Several colonies of these had passed from Ireland into North Britain and taken possession of the part of the country since called Scotland. Later Saint Palladius also founded three churches in more hospitable regions of Ireland.

He preached to the Scots with great zeal, and formed a considerable church. The Scottish historians tell us that the Faith was first planted in North Britain about the year 200, in the time of King Donald, when Saint Victor I was Pope; but they all acknowledge that Palladius was the first bishop of that country, and they call him their first Apostle. Saint Palladius died at Fordun, fifteen miles from Aberdeen, about the year 450. His feast day is July 7th.

Reflection: Saint Palladius surmounted the obstacles which a fierce nation opposed to the establishment of the kingdom of Jesus Christ. Ought not our hearts to be impressed with the most lively sentiments of love and gratitude to our merciful God, for having raised up such great and zealous men, by whose ministry the light of true faith has been conveyed to us?

Spotlight on Veterans

Benjamin T. Griego - U.S. Army

Benjamin was 19 years old when he joined the Army National Guard; he was part of the development of The Warrior Transition Course Program that helps service men transition from retired service or from one branch to another.

Benjamin wanted to serve and protect our country and provide for his family. He was engaged to be married at the time. He became active duty in the U.S. Army at the age of 21. His father, older brother and other family members had also served in the Army.

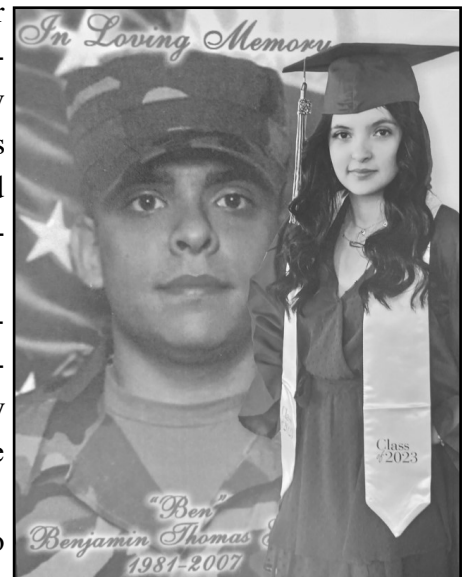

He was never deployed but was in training to do so. He was in Basic Training when 9/11 happened. At the time he was in AIT (Advance Individual Training) and was not able to call his family during this training period but, due to the circumstances, the service trainees were allowed to call their families. This was a very scary time for everyone who had loved ones in the military. Benjamin's most memorable experience was meeting and becoming friends with so many different people, from all walks of life.

From his families prospective, it takes a lot of heart and commitment to your purpose as a soldier; to have to leave behind their families to serve their country. Be prepared to see the world and take in all that it has to offer, but know that you can lean on your "brothers in service" in time of need. Our veterans are a symbol of honor to our country, willing to do whatever it takes to defend it. Veterans definitely need to be shown compassion and support from a country that recognizes them and their sacrifices.

As Benjamin's legacy, his daughter Alexandria continues to serve others, especially at her home parish of Sacred Heart. She is currently enrolled at Franciscan University in Steubenville, O.H. where she has been ministering in any way that she can, i.e., youth retreats, March for Life against abortion, etc. She is studying Theology and Catechetic, with an emphasis in Youth Ministry.

Benjamin's true heart and compassion for this world and his willingness to protect it have shown through in his daughter's works as well. Benjamin served for 7 years; he passed while in active service at age 26.

Thank you, Benjamin, for your service and sacrifice to our country!
