Welcome • Bienvenidos

Welcome to Sacred Heart Church, where we embrace each other as family, just as Jesus taught us to love one another and share each other's burdens. We strive each day to grow a little kinder, a little better, guided by the light of our faith. We are thrilled to extend our warmest greetings to you as you join our community. We make it our mission to make you feel at home, starting with reserving a seat for you among us. We invite you to explore our website or stop by the church office to learn more about how you can become an integral part of our parish family. We look forward to getting to know you and journeying together in faith. Remember Sacred Heart in your will!

Bienvenidos a la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón, donde nos abrazamos como familia, así como Jesús nos enseñó a amarnos los unos a los otros y compartir las cargas de los demás. Aquí nos esforzamos cada día por ser un poco más amables, un poco mejores, guiados por la luz de nuestra fe. Estamos encantados de extenderle nuestros más cordiales saludos al unirse a nuestra comunidad. Nuestra misión es hacerle sentirse como en casa, empezando por reservar un asiento entre nosotros. Lo invitamos a explorar nuestra página web o pasar por la oficina de la iglesia para obtener más información sobre cómo puede convertirse en una parte integral de nuestra familia parroquial. Esperamos conocerle y caminar juntos en la fe. ¡Recuerda el Sagrado Corazón en tu testamento!

Prayer Warriors

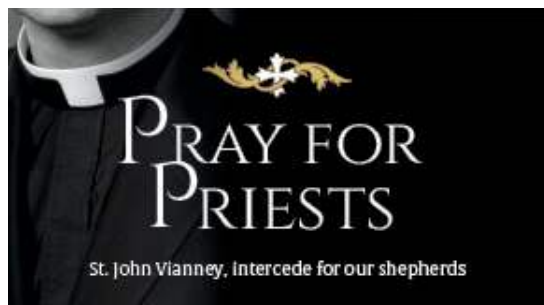

Sacred Heart Prayer Warriors!

¡Guerreros de Oración del Sagrado Corazón!

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, please contact Mary Shockley at (575) 799-6402. She will place the individual who is in need of prayer into a circle of prayer. Parishioners of Sacred Heart Church will then pray for those individuals to Almighty God. This is a wonderful ministry and privilege for us to be able to pray for you.

Si usted o alguien que conoce necesita oración, por favor contacte a Mary Shockley al (575) 799-6402. Ella pondrá a esa persona en un círculo de oración. Los feligreses de la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón orarán por ellos a Dios Todopoderoso. Es un ministerio maravilloso y un privilegio para nosotros poder orar por ustedes.

Pray for More Priests! • ¡Oren Por Más Sacerdotes!

Our beloved Archdiocese is in need. We have a shortage of priests to lead God's people, hear their confessions and provide absolution, give comfort to the sick and dying, and celebrate the liturgy of the Mass. Please, pray for more priests and pray for the ones that God has blessed us with!

Nuestra querida Arquidiócesis está en necesidad. Tenemos escasez de sacerdotes para guiar al pueblo de Dios, escuchar sus confesiones y dar la absolución, dar consuelo a los enfermos y moribundos, y celebrar la liturgia de la Misa. Por favor, oren por más sacerdotes y por aquellos con quienes Dios nos ha bendecido!

A Call to the Contemplative Life

In today's fast-paced world, silence has become rare. Our days are filled with phones, television, social media, endless activities, and constant distractions. Many people find themselves too busy to pray, while others give only a few moments of attention to God. When our hearts become filled with the noise of the world, our spiritual life slowly weakens, and our relationship with God

Yet every baptized Catholic is called to something much deeper. We are all called to intimacy with God and union with Jesus Christ through prayer, silence, penance, and a life of love. This is known as the contemplative life.

Many people think contemplation is only for monks and cloistered nuns who spend their lives in monasteries. While they dedicate themselves entirely to this vocation, the spirit of contemplation is also meant for every Christian. As lay Catholics, we may not live behind monastery walls, but we can still cultivate a contemplative heart in the middle of our families, workplaces, and daily responsibilities.

What is contemplation?

Simply put, contemplation is quietly resting in God's presence. It is a loving gaze of the soul upon God. It is not about saying many words or having extraordinary experiences. Rather, it is allowing God to speak to our hearts while we listen with love and faith.

The saints describe contemplation in beautiful ways. They speak of it as a "secret, peaceful, and loving infusion of God," or as a simple, loving exchange between the soul and the Lord. It is less about thinking and more about loving. As Pope St. Gregory the Great taught, contemplation belongs to those who love. Likewise, St. Teresa of Ávila reminded us that prayer is not about thinking a great deal, but about loving a great deal.

This loving prayer is possible because God's grace enlightens our minds and fills our hearts. We begin by knowing God through Scripture and the teachings of the Church. Then, through quiet prayer, that knowledge grows into a loving relationship.

How can lay Catholics practice contemplation?

It begins with making room for silence.

Try spending ten or fifteen minutes each day sitting quietly before the Blessed Sacrament or praying in a peaceful place at home. Read a short passage from the Gospel, then simply remain in God's presence. Speak to Him from your heart and allow moments of silence for Him to speak to yours.

Turn off the television. Put away the phone for a while. Create moments of quiet during your day. Pray the Rosary slowly and attentively. Spend time making a good examination of conscience. Receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation regularly.

Participate faithfully in Holy Mass and make time for Eucharistic Adoration whenever possible.

Penance also prepares our hearts for contemplation. Small sacrifices, fasting, self-denial, and acts of charity help free us from attachment to worldly distractions so that our hearts can become more attentive to God.

St. Thomas Aquinas described contemplation as a foretaste of heaven while we are still on earth. Every moment spent quietly with the Lord draws us closer to the eternal joy for which we were created.

Our parish invites every family to rediscover the beauty of silence and prayer. Let us not allow the noise of the world to drown out the gentle voice of God. In the silence of prayer, we discover that God has been waiting for us all along.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, who treasured all God's words in her heart, teach us to become contemplative disciples of her Son.

Fr. Franklin.
Pastor.
