Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

Fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad

Welcome to Sacred Heart Church, where we embrace each other as family, just as Jesus taught us to love one another and share each other's burdens. We strive each day to grow a little kinder, a little better, guided by the light of our faith. We are thrilled to extend our warmest greetings to you as you join our community. We make it our mission to make you feel at home, starting with reserving you a seat among us. We invite you to explore our website or stop by the church office to learn more about how you can become an integral part of our parish family. We look forward to getting to know you and journeying together in faith. Remember Sacred Heart in your will!

Bienvenidos a la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón, donde nos abrazamos como familia, así como Jesús nos enseñó a amarnos los unos a los otros y compartir las cargas de los demás. Aquí nos esforzamos cada día por ser un poco más amables, un poco mejores, guiados por la luz de nuestra fe. Estamos encantados de extenderle nuestros más cordiales saludos al unirse a nuestra comunidad. Nuestra misión es hacerle sentir como en casa, empezando por reservarle un asiento entre nosotros. Lo invitamos a explorar nuestro pagina web o pasar por la oficina de la iglesia para obtener más información sobre cómo puede convertirse en una parte integral de nuestra familia parroquial. Esperamos conocerle y caminar juntos en la fe. ¡Recuerda el Sagrado Corazón en tu testamento!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

"Francis, go rebuild my house..."

With these words, Jesus spoke to St. Francis as he prayed in front of the San Damiano Cross. The Cross of San Damiano carries great significance for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe and hangs prominently at the Cathedral Basilica of St Francis of Assisi in Santa Fe, our mother Church. In many ways it reflects the pilgrimage of faith our Archdiocese has had in recent years. On this cross, Jesus carries the wounds of great suffering, much like our Archdiocese. Around Jesus gathers a community that comforts and strengthens him and each other, also like our local community in the Church of Santa Fe. Finally, the Jesus depicted in this icon, is alive. His eyes are open, and he speaks to Francis. Then as now, Jesus is the resurrected Christ, who invites us all to New Life through our belief in Him.

At first, when he hears the words spoken from the Cross, St. Francis thought that Christ meant that he was to rebuild the little church in the San Damiano sanctuary, just outside the walls of Assisi. But he soon realized that Christ was referring to his Church built of living stones, built of the People of God.

You and I, all of us "living stones" in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, are called to rebuild, or better, to allow Christ to rebuild us so that we reflect more clearly the presence of Christ here in the Southwest. As we emerge from bankruptcy, we acknowledge the past painful years in which we sought to bring healing to those who suffered from clerical abuse and to all of us who were deeply hurt by the horrible betrayal of trust by some clergy members. This healing is ongoing and is especially expressed in the many ways that our archdiocese continues to promote safe environment practices. This healing is also expressed in our efforts to rebuild trust, to rebuild fractured relationships and to rebuild our local Church made up of living stones.

To this end, I call all of us in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe to participate in the rebuilding of our local Church through the Rebuild My Church initiative. With the help of the Leadership Roundtable (a national Catholic organization that emerged from the height of the abuse crisis in 2002 whose mission is to assist dioceses, parishes and schools in restructuring), this initiative has already begun as we form deanery planning commissions that will assist the Deans in writing pastoral plans for each deanery. The Pastoral Center will be considered as the ninth deanery in the archdiocese. These combined nine pastoral plans, which are based on the input we received from our parishioners during the diocesan phase of the Synod for a Synodal Church, will form the Archdiocesan Master Pastoral Plan.

These pastoral plans are rooted in five "guardrails" or "foundations" that will weave their way through each of the plans. Hence, the plans will reflect clearly

1. Sacred Scripture
2. Sacred Tradition
3. The Second Vatican Council
4. Catholic Social Teaching
5. The Petrine Ministry of Pope Francis

As mentioned above, the pastoral planning process we have begun is based on the input we received from our brothers and sisters in Christ who prayerfully participated in the Synodal process, a process rooted in prayer to the Holy Spirit. We have identified five major themes. They are purposely general but they give us good direction as we move forward. The five themes we have identified are these:

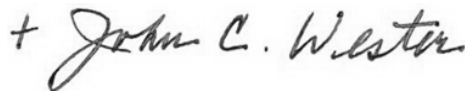

Continued on the next page...

1. Education and Formation
2. Role of Women
3. The Life of the Spirit
4. Ecumenical and Interfaith Dialogue and Events
5. Forming Ourselves in Synodality

It is my hope to complete all the deanery pastoral plans sometime in the autumn. I will go to each deanery and accept the plan within the context of a Eucharistic Liturgy. We will have a final Mass at our beautiful cathedral to celebrate the Master Plan of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. I anticipate that the plan will forge a path for us for the next 24 to 36 months. During the implementation of the plan, we will be looking to the future as we ready ourselves for the next planning session. In this way, we will always be discerning the promptings of the Holy Spirit, guiding and illuminating our path as we, a pilgrim people, make our way toward deeper union with God and with one another.

Please keep our Rebuild My Church initiative in your prayers and please be ready to respond to your dean and pastor as we embark on this exciting and grace-filled journey together. After all these years, we can still hear the Lord calling each of us to rebuild his Church. What a gift we have been given as we build on the labor of our ancestors in the faith and look to a future filled with hope and grace.

Your Servant in Christ Jesus,

Most Reverend John C. Wester

Archbishop of Santa Fe

Sacred Heart Prayer Warriors!

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, please contact Mary Shockley at (575)799-6402. She will place that individual that is in need of prayer into a circle of prayer. Parishioners of Sacred Heart Church will then pray for those individuals to Almighty God. This is a wonderful ministry and privilege for us to be able to pray for you.
