Why Church History Matters | Theology, Encouragement, & Warning

1. How does knowing what earlier Christians believed help us better understand Scripture today?
2. Can you think of a doctrine or belief that feels "normal" to you now, but you realize had to be clarified or fought for in the past?
3. Why do you think hearing about Christians who suffered or stayed faithful in hard times can be encouraging rather than discouraging?
4. How can church history help someone who feels isolated or alone in their faith today?
5. Why do you think it's easier to repeat the errors of the past than to learn from them?
6. How can knowing church history help us be humble rather than arrogant about our beliefs?
7. What's one question about Christianity or the church that you'd like to explore by looking at history instead of just opinions?
8. How does it make you feel knowing that you are a part of church history?
