What themes do you see in your storyline?

What did you feel as you did this?

Toward God:

Toward yourself:

Toward others:

What longings did this create?

How does this inform what your calling in the world is?

“Because of the Lord’s great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” (Lamentations 3:22-23).

Season
This may include a season of life, family, joy depression, growth, loneliness, development etc. i.e. “college years”, “time stationed in Georgia”, “when I was jobless”, “battle with cancer”, “time of biblical hunger”, “season of sin that God confronted”.

Event
This may include a moment time when God met you or a specific experience that changed your life. A life altering experience of joy, sorrow, hope, trauma or healing. Think about the experience of salvation and key moments in your sanctification experience.

Resource
This may include a specific tool that God used in your story. A particular book, a portion of the Bible, a church group, a mentor, family member or friend.
