WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT...

ROOM 422

What does the Bible really say about the issues shaping our lives and culture today? Join Pastor Eric every Wednesday night this fall, where we'll explore the Scriptures and what the Bible has to say about topics like truth, identity, mental health, sexuality, marriage, politics, suffering, and eternity. We'll move beyond opinions and the cultural talking points to discover what Scripture actually teaches, how to comprehend it, and how to live it out. Bring your Bible, your questions, and a willingness to be challenged and aligned with the Word of God. This class is open to both men and women!

SEEING THE WORLD THROUGH A BIBLICAL LENS

ROOM 423

What if the way you see the world shapes every decision you make, even the ones you don't realize you're making? In this class, we will dive beneath the surface to uncover how worldviews drive our faith and culture. Join Executive Minister Jeremy Congdon as we learn how to define worldview, discover why worldview matters, especially as a Christian, and evaluate various specific worldviews present in our world today. You will gain practical tools to build your resilience in a post-Christian world. This class will meet on Wednesday nights at 6:30 pm this fall. This class is open to both men and women.

WOMEN'S CLASS: NAMES OF GOD

DINING ROOM

Ladies, join us to dive deep into the Names of God - their meaning, significance, and the way they reveal the heart of God. Each name shows us a different facet of His mystery and magnificence, drawing us into deeper worship. We will explore how God's names meet us in specific moments of life and teach us how to call on Him with confidence. Led by Tinah and Angela Moles, come discover how knowing His names helps us know Him more. No book purchase needed... but you will need a Bible, so don't forget it in the backseat.
