Message Summary

Jesus teaches that every life is built on a foundation, and storms reveal what we are truly anchored to. Using Matthew 7:24–27, the message compares lives built on rock versus sand, showing that stability comes not from avoiding storms, but from building on Christ. Just as gravity keeps planets centred, Jesus must become the “centre of gravity” of our lives. In Matthew 14:28–31, Peter walks on water while focused on Jesus, but begins sinking when his attention shifts to the storm. The message reminds us that fear, anxiety, pressure, and insecurity all compete for our focus, but Jesus invites us to hear and follow His voice. John 10:27–28 reveals that His sheep recognise His voice and find security in Him. True stability is found not in control, approval, or circumstances, but in building daily on Jesus.

QUESTIONS TO THINK ABOUT AND PRAY ABOUT

1. What is actually at the centre of my life right now?
2. What would it look like for me to build on Jesus this week?
3. What do I run to first when life feels unstable : Jesus, or something else?
