Message Summary

This message challenges us to discover our purpose by asking a powerful question: “What breaks your heart?” Throughout history, people like Moses, Esther, Nehemiah, and Paul stepped into their purpose when they responded to a deep burden to make a difference. This question can shape our direction, but it may require sacrifice, courage, and leaving our comfort zone. True impact comes not from living for ourselves, but from giving our lives away for others. Ultimately, we are remembered for the difference we make, not what we gain. What breaks your heart may reveal what you were made for, and your opportunity to change someone’s world.
