DR. ANDREW
and DORCIANE
TOTH After
almost 50 years
of missionary work, primarily in Mexico, the Toths have retired to Wenatchee. In 1975 Andy began a ministry in the High Sierra region of the state of Guerrero which has now grown to 38 Presbyterian churches with pastors and a seminary training program in this most backward, most isolated, and most dangerous part of Mexico. Doriane has a ministry of prayer and inner healing.

RICK and LORENA WOOD
Rick is the editor
of Mission Frontiers, the cutting edge
magazine for mission leaders,

published by Frontier Ventures (formerly the U.S. Center for World Missions). Lorena has a ministry to immigrant women. They are based in Colorado Springs, CO.

VIC and DR.
LESLIE
TRAUTWEIN
head the work of
Kids Alive International in the Dominican Republic. With

over 40 missionaries and 18 interns, Kids Alive provides education, nutritious meals, medical care and the love of Christ to over 2000 at-risk children in group homes, schools and care centers.

Several additional missionaries we support are serving in sensitive areas.

Missionary Email Letters – Are you interested in receiving letters from our West Side missionaries by email? If you would like to be added to the distribution list, please contact the church office at office@wspe.org or 206-935-4477.

Missions are a high priority at West Side, in obedience to Christ's command to make disciples of all nations. Our priority to reach the world is as close as our own neighborhood and extends around the globe.
