SERIES: THE LURE OF SATAN

Sermon 5: The Whispers Of Satan

SPEAKER: REV. CHRIS SMITH | 8/10/2025 | PAGE 1 OF 5

Day 1: Understanding Our True Identity

Devotional: In a world where Satan relentlessly attacks who we are, understanding our true identity in Christ is crucial. From the Garden of Eden, Satan has questioned human identity, planting seeds of doubt about God's goodness. Even Jesus faced identity attacks when Satan challenged Him with 'If you are the Son of God...' immediately after God had declared Jesus as His beloved Son. When we believe the lie that God doesn't love us, life becomes dark and hopeless. But standing firm in God's love assures us He remains with us regardless of circumstances.

Bible Verse: 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.' - Jeremiah 1:4-5

Reflection Question: How have you seen Satan try to attack your identity, and how can you remind yourself of your true identity in Christ?

Quote: Finding your true identity in Christ is crucial in a world where Satan relentlessly attacks who we are. Since the Garden of Eden, Satan has questioned human identity, planting seeds of doubt about God's goodness.

Prayer: Dear Lord, help me to understand and embrace my true identity in You. Remind me daily that I am Your beloved child, and no lie from the enemy can change that. Amen.

Day 2: The Assurance of God's Love

Devotional: When we believe the lie that God doesn't love us, this world becomes a dark place. Hope is scarce, and optimism for the future is difficult. But when we know that God loves us, we know that He will stand by us day by day, no matter the circumstance. It's not according to how we feel; it's according to God's faithfulness. Jesus said, in this life, you're going to have tribulation. There will be setbacks and gray days, but God is with us.

Bible Verse: 'Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.' - Lamentations 3:22-23

Reflection Question: How can you remind yourself of God's unwavering love during difficult times?

Quote: When we believe the lie that God doesn't love us, this world becomes a dark place. Hope is scarce. The optimism for the future is difficult. If we buy into the lie that God does not love us.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for Your steadfast love and faithfulness. Help me to remember Your love, especially during challenging times. Amen.

Day 3: Embracing Our Uniqueness

Devotional: You are fearfully and wonderfully made, handmade by God, unique in your own way. Your fingerprint is unique. Your iris in your eye is unique. Your DNA is unique. That is God's handiwork on display. There is no partiality with God. He loves us all equally, regardless of nationality, gender, or social status. Satan tries to establish our identity by how we measure up to others, but we must resist the lure of comparison. God looks at the heart of a man, not the size of his influence or his ministry.

Bible Verse: 'I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.' - Psalms 139:14

Reflection Question: In what ways can you celebrate your uniqueness as God's creation?

Quote: You are fearfully and wonderfully made, handmade by God, unique in your own way. Your fingerprint is unique. Your iris in your eye is unique. Your DNA is unique. That is again God's handiwork on display.

Prayer: Lord, thank You for creating me uniquely and wonderfully. Help me to embrace my uniqueness and see myself through Your eyes. Amen.

Day 4: True Greatness Through Service

Devotional: If you want to be great, it's those that are willing to serve, those that are willing to humble themselves and serve another person. This is the opposite of the spirit of competition, the one that wants to be the top dog in everything they do. Satan whispers that it's the biggest, the brightest, and the loudest that gets God's attention. But it's the one who is faithful to the end that gets rewarded. God is looking for an obedient heart, not a superstar.

Bible Verse: 'Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.' - Mark 10:43-45

Reflection Question: How can you practice humility and service in your daily life?

Quote: If you want to be great, guys, if you want to truly be great, it's those that are willing to serve, those that are willing to humble themselves and serve another person. That is the opposite of the spirit of competition, the one that wants to be the top dog in everything they do.

Prayer: Jesus, help me to follow Your example of humility and service. Teach me to serve others with a willing heart and to seek greatness through serving. Amen.

Day 5: Overcoming Condemnation

Devotional: Satan will condemn you. He will point out every little mistake that you made and drag up stuff that you have prayed about and asked forgiveness for a decade ago. Whenever Satan comes against you and reminds you of what you've done, turn it around and remind him where he's going. God's love is steadfast, and nothing can separate us from it. Circumstances change, but God's love remains the same. Storms come with fury and destruction, but they never last. They have to come to pass.

Bible Verse: 'For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.' - Romans 8:38-39

Reflection Question: How can you remind yourself of God's unwavering love when you feel condemned?

Quote: Satan will condemn you. Satan will point out every little mistake that you made. He'll drag up stuff that you have prayed about that you've asked forgiveness for a decade ago.

Prayer: Lord, thank You for Your steadfast love that nothing can separate me from. Help me to stand firm in Your love and overcome any condemnation from the enemy. Amen.
