THE CHRISTIAN LIVING CORNER

Album of the Week:
From the Heart – Jessica Reedy

Jessica Reedy’s From the Heart is an authentic and soulful expression of faith, transparency, and redemption. Known from BET’s Sunday Best, Reedy brings a sound that’s both refreshing and deeply personal, blending gospel, soul, and smooth R&B tones. Each song flows with honesty and vulnerability, capturing the real emotions of walking with God through life’s highs and lows. With standout tracks that speak of grace, purpose, and renewal, From the Heart reminds listeners that God’s love reaches us even in our most human moments. This album isn’t just heard—it’s felt, making it a timeless addition to any worship playlist.

RightNow Media Study of the Week:
The Good Shepherd
Teacher: Heather Thompson Day

In John 10, Jesus calls Himself the Good Shepherd—the one who leads, protects, and gives life to His sheep. But what does it really mean to follow His example, especially when caring for people is challenging? In this insightful series, speaker and author Heather Thompson Day explores how Jesus modeled the qualities of a true shepherd and what it looks like for us to lead, serve, and care for others with both grace and truth.

Whether you’re a leader, mentor, parent, or friend, The Good Shepherd will help you reflect Christ’s heart as you love and guide those around you—even when it’s difficult.
