

An 8-Week Bible Study Series on
Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts

Week 4 – Convictions & Calling

Scripture: Jeremiah 20:7–9; Romans 10:13–15

Big Idea: Our _____ and _____ can reveal our gifts and calling.

Notes

1. Convictions show where God is _____ us to serve.
2. Burdens and passions can point to our _____.
3. God uses what stirs our hearts to guide us into _____.

Reflection Questions

- What area of need burdens you deeply?
- What do you feel compelled to act on?

Homework: Fill in the Convictions Worksheet.

An 8-Week Bible Study Series on
Discovering Your Spiritual Gifts

Convictions Worksheet

Purpose: To reflect on the deep passions and burdens God has placed in your heart that may point to your spiritual gifts and calling.

Part 1: What Stirs You?

1. The ministry or cause I feel most passionate about is:
2. The injustices or problems in the world that bother me most are:
3. If I could change one thing in my church or community, it would be:

Part 2: What Burdens You?

1. The needs of people that I feel most compelled to meet are:
2. I often find myself saying, "Somebody has to do something about this!" when I see:

Part 3: What Energizes You?

1. The kind of ministry work that makes me feel most fulfilled and alive is:
2. When I serve in ministry, I feel I'm in the center of God's will when I am:

Part 4: Priorities & Values

Rank the following in order of importance to you in ministry (1 = most important, 5 = least important):

___ Meeting practical needs ___ Teaching truth ___ Building relationships
___ Sharing the gospel ___ Caring for the hurting

Part 5: Reflection

- Based on your answers above, what themes or patterns do you notice?
- How might these convictions point to a specific spiritual gift or ministry area?