

MEN'S NIGHT OF WORSHIP

Lonnie Cochran

Life Coach & Mentor

THURSDAY, OCT. 23 — 5:30 PM

Join us for an inspiring evening of fellowship, food, and faith at our annual Men's Night of Worship. Dinner begins at 5:30 p.m. with a delicious meal from Smokey Joe's Barbecue, followed by worship and a powerful message at 6:15 p.m.

We're excited to welcome Lonnie Cochran as our guest speaker. Lonnie brings a wealth of experience in leadership, mentoring, and spiritual growth. He spent many years at Troy University serving as Mentor Coordinator and Academic Advisor, where he guided student-athletes in their transition from high school to college, helping them succeed both academically and personally.

In addition to his academic work, he also served as Character Coach and Players' Personal Development Advisor for the Troy football team.

Lonnie has also served as Teen Pastor and Counselor at Dothan Community Church, and continues to make an impact in the Wiregrass as a Life Coach and Mentor for Troy University athletes and FCA Huddles across the area.

A graduate of Ashford High School (Class of 1983), Lonnie went on to play basketball at Troy University, earning a B.S. in Criminal Justice in 1987. He later completed a Master of Arts in Human Service Counseling with a concentration in Life Coaching from Liberty University in 2015. Lonnie is married to his wife, Annie, and they have two adult daughters.

You won't want to miss this meaningful evening of worship and encouragement.
