April 25 • 5:45 p.m.
Fellowship Hall
A light meal begins at 5 p.m.
Nursery provided

Speaker: Elizabeth Saliba

Whenever women have an opportunity to be in worship together, I count it as a blessing, which is why I am so excited to host another Women's Night of Worship! Women of all ages are invited to join us on April 25, as we turn our hearts and minds on Jesus. We will explore what spiritual wellness can look like for each of us in our daily walk with Christ.

Elizabeth Saliba will graciously give of her time to speak to us about her own journey through what it means to be spiritually well. Elizabeth is a mother of three, wife to senior pastor Dr. David Saliba, and interim children's director at FUMC Dothan. I am so grateful to have this chance to hear from her.

The night will begin with a light meal at 5 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall of FUMC Dothan. We are so excited to have Move4 Fitness and Vibe Nutrition join us as well. Come and check them out! Worship will begin at approximately 5:45 p.m., in the same location. And there will be a door prize raffled off! We hope you will join us for what is sure to be a wonderful evening full of the Spirit!
