

OCTOBER 2026

BEACON

WE LEAD PEOPLE INTO LIFE-GIVING RELATIONSHIPS
WITH CHRIST AND EACH OTHER.

Dear Church,

The Apostle Paul wrote to the church at Philippi, "Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God." My sentiments exactly, Paul.

As I travel and spend time with ministers from across the country, I hear stories about churches. Some are beautiful. Others are painful, filled with conflict, division, and wounds. And often, as I listen, I find myself thinking about you. And I give thanks.

I give thanks for a church that loves the Lord, loves one another, and keeps learning how to love our neighbors. We are not a perfect church, but there is a generosity of spirit here that I never want to take for granted.

Our mission is to lead people into life-giving relationships with Christ and each other. Have you heard that yet? I hope so. We say it often. It is posted around our buildings. More importantly, we want it to shape how we live together.

This fall, an average of 86 people are participating in our Life-Giving Practices study each week. We now have 36 Life-Giving Groups where people can find friendship, care, purpose, and a sense of belonging.

We are also creating more opportunities simply to enjoy being together. First Sunday Fellowship gives us time for donuts, coffee, and conversation after worship before classes begin.

And in October, we are bringing back our Midweek Meal on the third Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. More details are coming on costs, menu, and how to sign up!

Life-giving relationships rarely happen by accident. They grow when we make room for Christ and one another.

This fall, we are stepping into a shared way of life built on simple, steady practices that shape who we are becoming together. These are not about adding more to already full lives, but about paying attention to the rhythms that keep us close to Christ and connected to one another. Week by week, we will explore practices like prayer, Scripture, rest, generosity, and community—not as ideals to admire, but as invitations to live differently in the middle of ordinary life. These are our shared practices that lead to life-giving relationships with Christ and each other. View all ten practices at www.fbcjc.org/life-giving-practices.

LIFE-GIVING GROUPS

Learn more at https://fbcjcmo.churchcenter.com/groups

Care Groups - 2 open groups

Find hope and healing in a Care Group. Care Groups are safe places to be honest about life's challenges and discover you don't have to face them alone. Whether you're navigating grief, recovery, caregiving, mental health, or another difficult season, these groups offer encouragement, understanding, and the reminder that God's care is often experienced through one another.

Connect Groups - 14 open groups

Find faith and friends in a Connect Group. Connect Groups are where we move from rows to circles - from being attenders to being family. They're where everyday faith is practiced, friendships are formed, and lives are transformed.

Serve Groups - 12 open groups

Find purpose and connection through serving others. Serve Groups bring God's love to life within and beyond our church community - meeting practical needs, building relationships, and showing our city that love looks like action.

Social Groups - 3 open groups

Find fun and friendship in a Social Group. Social Groups gather people around shared interests, meals, adventures, and activities because relationships grow best when we simply enjoy life together. They're where strangers become friends, laughter is shared, and community is strengthened.

CAREGIVER SUPPORT GROUP

Third Tuesday Each Month

MISSIONS

SHINING A LIGHT ON HOMELESSNESS

First Baptist Church is committed to addressing homelessness and inadequate housing in Jefferson City through partnerships with two frontline organizations: Transformational Housing and Housing the Community Jefferson City.

We committed $100,000 by the end of 2027. We have volunteers serving in both organizations. We host Room at the Inn, the cold-weather shelter. We hosted six Lunch & Learns in 2025-2026 to educate our church and community about the needs and the work being done to address housing insecurity.

This fall, we continue to learn and grow as advocates.

October 10 has been World Homeless Day since 2010, bringing individuals together to find ways to change the lives of homeless people in their communities. It's also a time to draw attention to the needs of people experiencing homelessness on a local level.

On Sunday, October 11, congregations across the country are considering together how God invites everyone home—and what it could look like for the church to do the same. Those congregations include ours and our neighbors at First Christian and First Methodist. In our October 11 worship gathering, we'll share a video and a litany among the three congregations as we ask God how we can join together to notice and advocate for our unhoused neighbors.

Then, on October 24 and 25, we'll host our Keys to Hope Conference.

On Saturday, October 24, from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m., we'll gather around tables in the Fellowship Hall to learn from author, speaker, and homeless advocate Kevin Nye. On Sunday, October 25, from 10:15-11:15 a.m., Kevin will speak to youth and adults in our Fellowship Hall on the Christian call to care about the unhoused. Sunday is free, and no registration is required. Saturday is by registration only and costs $10, although free scholarship tickets are available. Register by October 14 and make sure to invite friends, neighbors, and coworkers to join us. Register at www.fbcjc.org/events.

In October we kick off this 4-week series on Stronger. We'll talk about how, when life hurts, or goes wrong, or doesn't make sense, these things are true: Jesus can redeem what's gone wrong, God can be trusted, God gives us each other, and God helps us persevere.

REFUGE FALL RETREAT

Refuge is excited to be heading back to Logan Valley for our Fall Retreat! This weekend will be a great opportunity for students to step away from the busyness of everyday life and spend time growing closer to God and one another through worship, friendship, and plenty of fun.

Our theme this year is "True." Focusing on how He is the True Light who shines in the darkness and the True Vine who gives us life and helps us grow. Through engaging sessions, small group discussions, and shared experiences, students will be encouraged to build a genuine faith rooted in Christ.

We are looking forward to an unforgettable weekend of connection, encouragement, and spiritual growth together at Logan Valley!
