

JANUARY 2026

BEACON

WE LEAD PEOPLE INTO LIFE-GIVING RELATIONSHIPS WITH CHRIST AND EACH OTHER.

Dear Church,

As we turn the page toward 2026, it feels important to name both where we have been and where we are going. Over the past two years, we have laid strong foundations for the future. We moved to new database and financial systems to strengthen communication, engagement, and efficiency. We launched a new website and app to help people connect more easily. We installed new interior and exterior signage to make our building more welcoming and easier to navigate. These were meaningful steps, and they matter. Now, we are ready to look ahead.

In 2026, we will focus on helping people take clear, meaningful next steps in their faith. We believe discipleship happens best when people know where they are and can see where God might be leading them next. This year, we will evaluate what is bearing fruit, name what is missing, and build a simple, accessible pathway that invites people into deeper life with Christ and one another. That path will include growing as disciples, serving generously, giving faithfully, professing faith, being baptized, sharing the story of God's work in their lives, and learning to lead others along the way.

One key part of this work is developing more teachers. Strong, faithful Bible study leaders help shape disciples and deepen community. To that end, we are offering a Level Up: Teach workshop on February 1. If you are grounded in your faith and love the Word of God, this may be your invitation to consider leading a Bible study at FBC. The workshop will cover how to prepare and lead a simple Bible study, why Bible study matters in our church, and how to use available resources. A light lunch will be served. Registration is open through January 26 at www.fbcjc.org/events.

Thank you for being a church that keeps growing, learning, and stepping forward together.

Pastor Melissa

Light That Shapes Us
Matthew 5:1-12
Rev. Melissa Hatfield

As a new year begins and winter stretches long, we turn to the Gospel stories of Epiphany – when Christ's light is revealed in surprising and life-giving ways. Along the way, we are reminded that this light names us beloved, brings us joy, calls us to love, and ultimately transforms us with hope. In a season when days are short, and spirits may feel weary, we find strength in the One whose light no darkness can overcome.

ROBIN STULL RETIREMENT CELEBRATION

After 35 years of service as our Maintenance Director, Robin Stull has announced his retirement. His last day of employment will be the end of April. We will honor Robin and Teresa in our service on Sunday, April 19, followed by a brunch reception at 10:15 a.m. during the Bible Teaching hour.

Mark your calendar. More information coming later.

LEVEL UP: TEACH

A workshop for adults interested in teaching adults.

Sunday, February 1
11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Room 101 | Lunch provided

Register at fbjc.org or in the app
by January 26.

You are strong in your faith and love the Word of God. Maybe it's time to consider leading a Bible study at FBC. On Feb. 1, 2026, we will show you how to do it.

This workshop is designed to help people learn how to prepare and lead a simple Bible study. It will include suggestions from current teachers on how they prepare. You will learn why we teach the Bible at FBC JC and what purpose Bible study groups serve. You will get an overview of the Bible study materials available through the church and how to use online and video resources like RightNow Media to prepare your own Bible studies.

A light lunch will be served. Register by January 26 at fbjc.org/events.

CREATION CARE TEAM MEETING

Our next meeting is January 18 at 11:30 a.m. in Room 326. We welcome anyone interested in learning more about our team and 2026 initiatives. We care for creation as an expression of loving God, loving neighbors, and following Jesus.

LUNCH & LEARNS RESUME IN FEBRUARY

Our monthly Lunch & Learns around homelessness resume on February 10, March 10, and April 14. In February, we will hear from the leadership at the Salvation Army Center for Hope. The conversation begins at 12:15 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Drinks and dessert provided. Bring your lunch if you need to eat over a lunch hour!

URKAIINE

Gennady Podgaisky (L) and Mina Podgaisky (R) with Ukrainian refugees hosted in their home in Poland. "This is how we create beloved community—around the table. There are always people here," Mina said.

As a member of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (CBF), First Baptist embraces the invitation to utilize connections and resources to go deeper in ministry and seek the transformation of God's world.

In 2025, FBC became an encourager church with Gennady and Mina Podgaisky, who now work from Poland in support of Ukrainian refugees. The Podgaiskys served as field personnel in Kiev, Ukraine, for nearly 20 years. When the war broke out, the Podgaiskys relocated to Poland, where they continue to aid Ukrainian people who are in distress from the war.

The situation in Ukraine is critical. Due to the destruction of power plants in Ukraine, there are regular electricity shortages in Kyiv and across many other regions in the country. The Podgaiskys provide funds for utilities, firewood, water, food, clothes, blankets, hygiene, and medical supplies. They help churches with local and regional outreaches and children and youth camps. They continue to provide psychological, emotional, and spiritual help for refugees in Poland. Gennady Podaisky says, "One of the simplest and best things we can do to help Ukrainian refugees is to validate and help process people's feelings, fears, and losses."

You can support the Podgaiskys and the Disciples Church in L'viv with Pastor Elisey Pronin by giving to our Ukraine fund at fbcjc.org/give or by check. 100% of funds given to the Ukraine fund are passed on to our partners there.

During these cold winter months, there is room for 20 adults in the Jefferson City Room at the Inn (JCRATI). Located on the upper level of our gym, JCRATI will operate daily from 5:30 p.m. to 7 a.m. through the first part of March 2026.
