SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

Last week, we looked at two visions of judgment for Israel that the Lord revealed to Amos concerning Israel, in which the Lord relented in response to Amos' intercession. In contrast, the two visions in this week's passage depict judgments that will certainly come to pass. They serve as a sobering reminder that God's patience will not endure indefinitely and as a warning that his people today must take seriously.

Discussion Questions

1. Review: Thinking through the book of Amos so far, how would you characterize the nature of Israel's sin and disobedience?
2. What is a plumb line and what is God saying about Israel by using it in the vision he showed Amos in 7:7-9?
3. Why does Amaziah the priest confront Amos and what does he accuse him of (7:10-13)? What is Amos' response? How does Amos' response shut down Amaziah's argument?
4. What is the nature of the proclaimed judgment in 7:16-17 and how does it differ from the visions of judgment that God relented from in 7:1-7?
5. What is the meaning of summer fruit used in the fourth vision of 8:1-2? How will this judgment change the people's tune (8:3)?
6. In what specific ways should we be warned from what we read in this passage? How can this text be used to communicate the gospel to unbelievers?
