SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

In the second half of Amos 5, God confronts Israel's false assumptions in their standing before the Lord. This misplaced assurance is evident in their eagerness for the "day of the LORD" to come, as well as their continued outward religious practices. Yet God is not impressed with their external displays of devotion. Their hearts remain far from him and his righteous judgment will soon come upon them.

Discussion Questions

1. Review: According to last week's passage (5:1-17), how is God going to judge Israel and what is the hope that he presents to them?
2. What is the "day of the LORD" (5:18)? Why is God warning them against desiring it?
3. Look at 5:21-24. Why does God hate their gestures of worship? What is God calling them to do instead (5:24)?
4. Read 5:25-27. What is God telling Israel concerning the true state of their heart? What is going to be the result of it?
5. How is our worship supposed to connect with the way we live our lives? Why should we be concerned when it doesn't?
6. How might you share the gospel with someone from this passage; particularly from 5:18-20?
