SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

After calling Israel out for their meaningless and superficial displays of worship in chapter 5, the Lord continues to expose the nature of a life lived devoid of genuine acknowledgement of God. Even though they are the Lord's chosen people, their sin must be addressed and punished.

Discussion Questions

1. Review: Why does God hate Israel's worship (5:21-24)? What is he calling them to instead of their ceremonies?
2. In 6:1-3, God compares Israel to other nations. What is he warning them about by doing this?
3. Look at 6:4-10. What is God calling them out for and what is going to result as a consequence?
4. What sin has Israel been committing that is being highlighted in 6:11-14? What particular ways have they demonstrated their sin?
5. When looking at Israel's transgressions in this passage, how do we sometimes see these things take root in our own lives?
6. How does a passage like this naturally connect to the gospel message? How might you walk through this text and share Jesus with someone?
