Acts 2:47

And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

Stonegate Family,

Last words are weighty words.

With His final words, Jesus filled His followers with purpose and sent them into the world with power.

The command is clear:
Go... make disciples.

We're a big YES to that mission — because we want lost people found, hell-bound friends rescued, and spiritually dead neighbors and friends brought to life.

We want men and women, students and families, coworkers and neighbors — EVERYONE, EVERYWHERE — to enjoy the risen Jesus.

Life is short. Eternity is long. Our lives matter.

So, in this sacred moment, let's give a fresh YES to this simple command:

Go... make disciples.

Your friend,
Pastor Rodney

If sinners will be damned,
let them leap to Hell over our bodies.
And if they will perish,
let them perish with our arms about
their knees,
imploring them to stay.
And if Hell must be filled,
let it be filled in the teeth of our
exertions,
and let not one go there unwarned
and unprayed for.

Charles H. Spurgeon

Our Goals

Make Disciples is a 2 year initiative. Over those two years, we're asking Jesus for three things:

200,000
Casts

400
Baptisms

1
Church Plant

Our Commitment

Pray Daily.

I will pray Acts 2:47 over our church, that He would add to our number daily those who are being saved. And I will ask the Lord for 3 things each day.

1. Make Me a Missionary
2. Open Doors
3. Give Me Boldness

Cast Weekly.

I will take every opportunity to present Jesus, joining the story God is writing in their life.

Party Monthly.

I will gather my friends who don't know Jesus with my friends who do — making room for Jesus to move.

Casting Conversations

Jesus exemplified "casting" conversations by being present, curious, and intentional, engaging in simple, natural dialogues in the Gospels.

Good.

Jesus models warm conversation through genuine interest and questions. To enhance conversations, be present, encourage others, and listen.

God.

Jesus turned conversations to God with respect and gentleness, asking questions that prompted reflection on God's significance. Similarly, look for chances to steer discussions toward God thoughtfully. Be mindful of the other person's openness; if they are receptive, engage in deeper dialogue. If not, remain supportive and pray for their readiness.

Gospel.

From there, Jesus often directed conversations to the Gospel, emphasizing who He is and our response. Look for opportunities to connect discussions to the good news by sharing your personal experiences of His impact on your life. Aim for conversations to lead to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, because we want everyone, everywhere, to enjoy Jesus.

Nudge Questions

Good (Conversation Starter)

- Where did you grow up? What was it like growing up there?
- What do you do for a living?
- What do you do for fun? What do you enjoy about that?
- What hobbies do you have?
- What does that tattoo or piece of jewelry mean to you?

From Good to God

- Do you attend church anywhere?
- Tell me about your spiritual background.
- Were you involved in a church growing up?
- Do you ever think about God?
- What do you think about God?
- Notice body language and emotion when you see people. Simply asking, "Is everything ok today? You seem a little down, upset, etc?"
- May I pray for you?

From God to Gospel

- Do you have a relationship with God?
- How would you describe your relationship with God?
- How do you think we can have a relationship with God?
- What do you think about Jesus?
- Who is Jesus to you?
- Are you a follower of Jesus?
- Have you ever told Jesus you want to follow him?

From Gospel to Response

- Is there anything holding you back from giving a wholehearted YES to Jesus?
- Do you want to follow Jesus?

Next Steps

If your friend meets Jesus, here are next steps that would be great to invite them into:

- Invite them to come to church with you
- Encourage them to get baptized
- Sign them up for ENJOY or invite them to join your community group
- Meet with them to study the Bible together

The Gospel is only good news if it gets there in time.

Carl Henry

FAQs

What is a Cast?

A CAST occurs whenever you present Jesus and engage in someone's spiritual journey, not just in conversations leading to faith. Examples include:

- Offering to pray
- Asking about church involvement
- Inviting to church
- Encouraging faith in Jesus

The goal of casting is to play our role in what Jesus is doing in another's life. That means we don't need to push a person past their point of readiness.

Where do I Cast?

We practice disciple-making in everyday life, not confined to specific settings. Instead of adding to your busy schedule, we encourage you to incorporate Gospel intentionality into your existing activities at home, work, and in your community. Everywhere you go is an opportunity to share.

Does “Make Disciples” replace “Who’s Your One?”

No — “Who’s Your One?” focuses our prayers on one person. “Make Disciples” widens that focus, inviting us to live as disciple-makers everywhere we go—while still keeping our heart for the ONE God has placed before us.

What resources are available to help me grow in evangelism?

We're here to support you in following Jesus and helping others do the same. As part of Make Disciples, you'll receive:

- The Make Disciples series journal.
- A free book, "How to Talk to People About Jesus."
- Sermon series in February and March to attend every Sunday.
- The Casting Class to train you in evangelism.
- Support from Community Groups and leaders.

Is this connected to "Follow Me"?

No, Make Disciples is separate from Follow Me. While both focus on following the Good Shepherd, Follow Me ends as Make Disciples begins. Follow Me emphasized stewardship of resources; Make Disciples focuses on presenting Jesus everywhere we go.

What if I'm afraid or don't know what to say?

Fear is real, but faith gets the final word. Jesus isn't asking you to have all the answers — He's asking you to trust Him. Our responsibility is obedience; God is the one who brings the growth.

How does this fit with Community Groups?

Community Groups are where disciple-making takes root. They offer prayer, encouragement, accountability, and shared wisdom as we enjoy Jesus and make disciples together.

Enjoy Jesus Together

This season is best experienced in community. So, we invite you to join a community group.

Enjoy

ENJOY is your next step to community and Christ-likeness. If you are new around Stonegate or haven't found a group, ENJOY was designed with you in mind.

We meet Sunday nights from 6:00–7:30pm. Each week includes teaching, discussion, and space to share. You can join at any point during the series by texting ENJOY to 97000.

Community Groups

If Sunday nights don't work for your schedule, we'd still love to help you find community.

We have community groups meeting throughout the week in homes across the area. By scanning the QR code below, you can explore groups and request to join one that fits your schedule.

Tip 7 - Become Their Unofficial, De Facto Chaplain

Discuss.

In the section “How to be a Chaplain” on page 104-114, consider the skills of a chaplain. A chaplain lives wisely, a chaplain learns everyone’s name, a chaplain takes an interest in people’s lives, a chaplain is a calm non-anxious presence (by trusting in God), and a chaplain offers to pray with people. Which of these skills do you see in you? Which skill would you like to grow in? How can you take steps to grow in this and put it into practice?
