

Malachi

Part 2: Rebuke and Promises

Overview of Malachi

- God's people doubted His love.
- That doubt caused the people to drift.
- The book now shifts from rebuke to promises.

Malachi 3-4

- God promises a messenger and His own coming.

Malachi 2:17 – 3:1 (NLT)

Malachi 3:2-5 (NLT)

- He comes as a refiner, not a mascot.

Malachi 3:6-12 (NLT)

- God's people are called to return and repent.

Malachi 3:13-18 (NLT)

- God distinguishes the arrogant from the faithful.

Malachi 4:1-6 (NLT)

- God announces both judgment and healing.

A Note on Attributes

- God is All-Loving (1:2)
- God is Holy (1:6-14)
- God is Just (3:5, 4:1-3)
- God is Immutable (3:6)
- God is Generous (3:10-12)
- God is Merciful (3:17-18)

The same God who confronts and hates sin, also refines and restores those who follow Him.

Malachi

Part 2: Rebuke and Promises

Overview of Malachi

- God's people doubted His love.
- That doubt caused the people to drift.
- The book now shifts from rebuke to promises.

Malachi 3-4

- God promises a messenger and His own coming.

Malachi 2:17 – 3:1 (NLT)

Malachi 3:2-5 (NLT)

- He comes as a refiner, not a mascot.

Malachi 3:6-12 (NLT)

- God's people are called to return and repent.

Malachi 3:13-18 (NLT)

- God distinguishes the arrogant from the faithful.

Malachi 4:1-6 (NLT)

- God announces both judgment and healing.

A Note on Attributes

- God is All-Loving (1:2)
- God is Holy (1:6-14)
- God is Just (3:5, 4:1-3)
- God is Immutable (3:6)
- God is Generous (3:10-12)
- God is Merciful (3:17-18)

The same God who confronts and hates sin, also refines and restores those who follow Him.

