Let's Pray...

-Pray for the persecuted church, uphold our brothers and sisters who face imprisonment, violence, and rejection for Your name. Grant them supernatural courage, unwavering faith, and the peace that surpasses understanding. May they feel Your presence in the darkest places and know they are not forgotten."

-Pray for those who are in baptism classes - may they rise with You into new life, filled with faith, joy, and the power of Your Spirit. Strengthen their walk and surround them with a loving church family.

-We lift before You all in our church family who are burdened by depression. Surround them with love, understanding, and the assurance that they are never alone.

-We lift up the seniors in care homes, those who feel alone, overlooked, or weary. Let Your presence fill their rooms with peace, and stir our hearts to reach out with kindness, visits, and prayers.
