FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

This week, on July 16, is the feast day of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. For nearly eight centuries, there have been those devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. I am sure you have heard of this title, but perhaps did not know much about devotion or what "Carmel" is.

What is Mt. Carmel? Good question. It is a real place with great historical significance as it is related to us in Scripture. Mt. Carmel is actually a mountain range in northern Israel. The word "Carmel" means "God's vineyard" or "God's garden." That name plays an important role in the spirituality of the Carmelite Order. The soul is the beautiful Garden where one lives with God.

In Scripture, for our purposes here, Mt. Carmel is associated with the prophet Elijah as we see in the First Book of Kings. It was there, as 1 Kings 18 relates, that Elijah had his showdown with the prophets of Baal, and Elijah called upon the Lord to send down fire from heaven to consume the sacrifice on his altar. At the end of that same chapter, the Lord ends the drought and famine by sending rain. Elijah was told that: "There is a cloud as small as a man's hand rising from the sea." Interesting enough, this translation was not what most people are familiar with. In the Latin Vulgate and the Greek Old Testament, this verse could be translated as: "Behold, a cloud as small as [or like] a man's foot, rising from the sea."

Looking back on this event, spiritual writers have seen here a foreshadowing of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Check out, again, the Latin Vulgate Old Testament. After Adam and Eve had sinned, they were cast out of the garden. And God said this in Genesis 3:15: "I will put enmities between thee and the woman, and thy seed and her seed: she shall crush thy head, and thou shalt lie in wait for her heel." Our tradition has always seen in this passage from Genesis 3:15 a prophecy of Mary who will come and crush the head of the devil. Some have also seen in 1 Kings 18 a connection between Mary and Mt. Carmel, as the cloud in the shape of a foot rising out of the sea reminds one of Mary crushing the head of Satan.

I will skip a bunch of history here and point out that there were monks on Mt. Carmel since the time of Elijah and the Carmelite Order traces its history back to the great prophet as their spiritual father. The Carmelite Order was founded there in what was known as the Crusader States (in the Holy Land). Some of the monks there moved to England and began their chapter in about 1241-1242. Simon Stock was the prior and in 1251 he was given a vision that would have its effect on Catholic devotion until this day.

On July 16, 1251, Simon Stock was given a vision, and Mary appeared to him with the scapular. A scapular is a cloth that goes over the head and hangs down the front and back of the one wearing it. This is a standard part of a religious habit these days. But it was to these monks that Mary first gave this garment, the Brown Scapular, with the promise: "Whosoever dies wearing this scapular shall not suffer eternal fire." Today, the brown scapular can be worn by anyone who wishes to be "enrolled" and have the scapular placed upon you. The scapular is a simple vesture, consisting of two rectangular/square pieces, connected by brown wool strings, so that it hangs over the front and back, usually hidden under clothing. It is a sign of one's devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the promises of her help from Heaven.

Of course, the scapular is not magic, but we are given the help of heaven, and reminded of that help, so that we live a holy life. This is why Mary assigned certain conditions to accepting the scapular:

Wear the Brown Scapular continuously.

Observe chastity according to one's state in life (married/single).

Recite daily the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin or Observe the fasts of the Church together with abstaining from meat on Wednesdays and Saturdays, or with permission of a priest, say five decades of Our Lady's Most Holy Rosary, or with permission of a priest, substitute some other good work.

There is always more to learn about this devotion and all that Our Lady does for us. Many throughout the centuries have found in this devotion a tangible sign of God's love for us through the Virgin Mary. The scapular is Mary, as our Mother, clothing us, her children. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, pray for us!

In Christ, Father Amato
