FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

Happy Easter! He is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

On this Octave Day of Easter, also called Divine Mercy Sunday, we continue to celebrate the Resurrection of Christ, and our celebration is carried on for 50 days. Last week I wrote a little about the Divine Mercy devotion and the graces offered on that day. I just want to again encourage people to attend, bring your friends, and come pray with us on this beautiful feast day, starting at 1:30pm on Sunday.

Again, I cannot adequately express my gratitude for all that people have done to make our churches and our liturgies beautiful throughout the Easter Triduum and the Easter Sunday Masses. They were all so glorious and worthy of the honor and worship due to God for what He has done for us. As you take a look at the pictures of our beautifully decorated churches, I also want to express my sincere congratulations again to all those who were baptized and confirmed at the Easter Vigil. It has been a privilege to teach and form them, and we are so excited that they have found their home in the Catholic Church, in our parish!

I will leave you this week with these words from Dom Prosper Guéranger, O.S.B.:

“The Church would, therefore, have us consider ourselves as having already risen with our Jesus, and as having already taken possession of eternal life. The holy Fathers bid us look on these fifty days of Easter as the image of our eternal happiness. They are days devoted exclusively to joy; every sort of sadness is forbidden; and the Church cannot speak of her divine Spouse without joining to her words that glorious cry of heaven, the Alleluia, wherewith, as the holy Liturgy says, the streets and squares of the heavenly Jerusalem resound without ceasing.

We have been forbidden the use of this joyous word during the past [six] weeks; it behooved us to die with Christ – but now that we have risen together with him from the tomb, and that we are resolved to die no more that death which kills the soul and caused our Redeemer to die on the cross, we have a right to our Alleluia.”

In Christ, Father Amato

St. John Bosco Is Hiring!

Teacher candidates ranging from PreK-8th grade are welcome to apply by contacting Andy Follaco. We ask you to prayerfully consider full or part time work with an organization built upon growing closer to our Lord. Having a passion for working with children, and an ability to build positive relationships with students while modeling an authentic Catholic lifestyle is a must. We pride ourselves on the amazing professional development we now offer.

While teaching experience is preferred, we welcome all candidates looking for a job that allows them weekly Mass and Adoration along with monthly Confession. If you are looking for part time work helping in the office or elsewhere, there could be opportunities available as well!

All interested candidates should email Andy at afollaco@johnboscoschools.org or call the office at 348-9401 to inquire.
