P L E A S E S E E I N S I D E F O R M A S S T I M E S

FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AMATO

Because the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, August 15, occurred on a Saturday, it was not a day of precept (obligation). It is one of my favorite feast days throughout the year because – besides Easter and the Ascension of the Lord – it is the ultimate feast of hope for us. We have a mother who lives, in body and soul, with our Lord, above all the choirs of angels, in a place in heaven unique to her – in her dignity and majesty, reigning as Queen of Heaven and Earth. She is “our life, our sweetness, and our hope” because her Son will listen to her every request on our behalf.

Formerly, the Assumption of Mary included an octave, concluding on August 22, the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Currently, there is no octave, but August 22 is the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We can recall the 4th and 5th Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary and reflect on the closeness of these two events: the Assumption of Mary and her Coronation. It is by her being assumed body and soul into heaven that Christ crowned all the merits of His mother and placed her in heaven above all created things. The heart our Lord gave her, her Immaculate Heart, was so perfectly united to the Heart of God, the Heart of her Son, that she always willed what He willed, because she loved all that He loved. She now reigns in heaven as our Queen and our Mother to pour out onto this world all graces from her Son. The Immaculate Heart of Mary and the Sacred Heart of Jesus cannot be separated.

As usual, Dom Prosper Guéranger provides his beautiful insight:

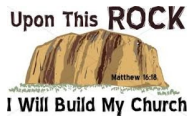

Nevertheless, the immensity of grace and merit, whereby the Blessed Virgin's supernatural perfection stands quite apart from all others, gives us a right to conclude that she has an equal supereminence in glory, which is always proportioned to the sanctity of the elect. Whereas all the other predestined of our race are placed among the various ranks of the celestial hierarchy, the holy Mother of God is exalted above all the choirs, forming by herself a distinct order, a new heaven, where the harmonies of angels and saints are far surpassed. In Mary God is more glorified, better known, more loved than in all the rest of the universe. On this ground alone, according to the order of creative Providence, which subordinates the less to the more perfect, Mary is entitled to be Queen of earth and heaven. In this sense, it is for her, next to the Man-God, that the world exists. ...

Let us hail our Queen, let us sing her mighty deeds; let us be docile to her; above all, let us love her and trust in her love. Let us not fear that, amidst the great interests of the spreading of God's kingdom, she will forget our littleness or our miseries. She knows all that takes place in the obscurest corners, in the furthest limits of her immense domain. From her title of universal cause under the Lord is rightly deduced the universality of her providence; and the masters of doctrine show us Mary in glory sharing in the science called of vision, whereby all that is, has been, or is to be is present before God. On the other hand, we must believe that her charity could not possibly be defective: as her love of God surpasses the love of all the elect, so the tenderness of all mothers united, centered upon an only child, is nothing to the love wherewith Mary surrounds the least, the most forgotten, the most neglected of all the children of God, who are her children too. She forestalls them in her solicitude, listens at all times to their humble prayers, pursues them in their guilty flights, sustains their weakness, compassionates their ills, whether of body or of soul, sheds upon all men the heavenly favours whereof she is the treasury.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!
Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, pray for us!

In Christ, Father Amato
