Notes

Quotes

“O love, how deep, how broad, how high,
Beyond all thought and fantasy,
That God, the Son of God, should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake!

For us baptized, for us he bore
His holy fast and hungered sore;
For us temptation sharp he knew,
For us the tempter overthrew.

For us he prayed; for us he taught;
For us his daily works he wrought:
By words and signs and actions thus
Still seeking not himself, but us.

For us to evil power betrayed,
Scourged, mocked, in purple robe arrayed,
He bore the shameful cross and death;
For us gave up his dying breath.

For us he rose from death again;
For us he went on high to reign;
For us he sent his Spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

All glory to our Lord and God
For love so deep, so high, so broad—
The Trinity, whom we adore
Forever and forevermore.

-attributed to Thomas 'a Kempis (1380-1471),
“O Love How Deep, How Broad, How High”

“Q: Wherein did Christ's humiliation consist?

A: Christ's humiliation consisted in his being born, and that in a low condition, made under the law, undergoing the miseries of this life, the wrath of God, and the cursed death of the cross; and in being buried, and continuing under the power of death for a time.”

-Westminster Shorter Catechism (1647), Question 27
