Quotes

“The Lord did not command the rich man to throw away his substance, but to cast out the passions of his soul.”

-Clement of Alexandria

“The more a man is entangled by his own righteousness, the farther he is from the kingdom of God.”

- John Calvin

“But in blindness they do not know

Where lies the good they seek:

That which is higher than the sky

On earth below they seek.

What can I wish you foolish men?

Wealth and fame pursue.

And when great toil wins false reward,

Then may you see the true.”

-Boethius, Consolation of Philosophy

“God commands what we cannot do, that we may know what we ought to ask of Him.”

-St. Augustine
