Order of Worship	Notes	Quotes
Prelude	Introduction:	“What can wash away my sin? Nothing but the blood of Jesus; What can make me whole again? Nothing but the blood of Jesus.” -Robert Lowry (1826-1899), "Nothing But the Blood"
*Call to Worship Psalm 150
*Prayer of Approach	I. Hearing the Charges	“So who needs grace? All of us, the saint as well as the sinner. The most conscientious, dutiful hardworking Christian needs God’s grace as much as the most dissolute, hard-living sinner. All of us need the same grace. The sinner does not need more grace than the saint, nor does the immature and undisciplined believer need more than the godly, zealous missionary. We all need the same amount of grace because the ‘currency’ of our good works is debased and worthless before God. Neither our merits nor our demerits determine how much grace we need, because grace does not supplement merits or make up for demerits. Grace does not take into account merits or demerits at all. Rather, grace considers all men and women as totally undeserving and unable to do anything to earn the blessing of God.” -Jerry Bridges (1929-2016). Transforming Grace
*Songs of Praise Come Thou Fount I Will Arise and Go To Jesus	A) A summons to creation
*Corporate Confession of Faith Nicene Creed	B) A summons to His people
Prayer of Confession and Intercession
*Song of Preparation Lord I Need You	II. Believing the Gospel
Offerings Acts 4:32-35 Come Let us Return To The Lord	A) Repenting of our sin	“Now what was the sort of “hole” man had got himself into? He had tried to set up on his own, to behave as if he belonged to himself. In other words, fallen man is not simply an imperfect creature who needs improvement: he is a rebel who must lay down his arms. Laying down your arms, surrendering, saying you are sorry, realising that you have been on the wrong track and getting ready to start life over again from the ground floor — that is the only way out of a “hole.” This process of surrender — this movement full speed astern — is what Christians call repentance. Now repentance is no fun at all. It is something much harder than merely eating humble pie. It means unlearning all the self-conceit and self-will that we have been training ourselves into for thousands of years. It means killing part of yourself, undergoing a kind of death...Remember, this repentance, this willing submission to humiliation and a kind of death, is not something God demands of you before He will take you back and which He could let you off of if He chose: it is simply a description of what going back to Him is like. If you ask God to take you back without it, you are really asking Him to let you go back without going back. It cannot happen.” - C. S. Lewis (1898-1963), Mere Christianity
Sermon Isaiah 1:1-20 “You Can Begin Again”	B) Trusting in His work
Prayer of Response
Celebration of the Lord’s Supper Behold The Lamb	Conclusion:
*Song of Response Joy To The World
*Benediction *As you are able, please stand.
