Order of Worship	Notes	Quotes
Prelude	Introduction:	"The idea is simply this: when God makes us one with Christ, he also makes us one with each other. Our physical bodies are made up of many different parts, each with different abilities and functions, all deeply connected as a unified body. We are connected to each other in the same way in Christ. We don't cease to exist as individuals, but we are deeply connected to one another just as we are deeply connected to Christ." -J. Alasdair Groves, Winston T. Smith, Untangling Emotions
*Call to Worship Psalm 149:1-4
*Prayer of Approach	I. The Calling to Walk Worthy
*Songs of Praise O Church Arise And Can It Be	II. The Conduct: Four Virtues	"Christian unity is not so much an aspiration as it is a presupposition. Because of Christ's death and resurrection and by the indwelling work of his Spirit, we are one in Jesus Christ. No other basis for unity will suffice; he alone "is able to bear the weight of the center." Our unity in Christ is a fact, despite the way that things sometimes appear. God's ever-listening Holy Spirit has answered and will continue to answer the great prayer of Jesus Christ: that we may be one as the Father and Son are one (John 17:11). Now it is up to us to live out the common unity that the Spirit has given us." -Philip Graham Ryken, Beauty Is Your Destiny: How the Promise of Splendor Changes Everything
Scripture Reading Ecclesiastes 4:9-12	A) Humility and Gentleness
Prayer of Confession	B) Patience and Bearing With One Another
*Song of Assurance Completely Known, Completely Loved	C) Eager to Maintain Unity
Scripture Reading Romans 12:9-18	III. The Foundation: Seven Ones	"the church is the community of our spirituality. Herman Bavinck stresses the communal aspect of Christian spirituality, explaining that we are "incorporated in a great whole, taken up into a rich fellowship . . . [as] a member of a new nation and citizen of a spiritual kingdom whose king is glorious in the multitude of his subjects." Dietrich Bonhoeffer speaks similarly: "Christian community is not an ideal we have to realize, but rather a reality created by God in Christ in which we may participate. . . . The ground and strength and promise of all our community is in Jesus Christ alone." -Christopher W. Morgan, Biblical Spirituality
Prayer of Intercession	A) One Body, One Spirit, One Hope — The Church's Communal Identity
Song of Preparation The Church's One Foundation	B) One Lord, One Faith, One Baptism — The Church's Confessional Unity
Sermon Ephesians 4:1-6 "Our Union with Christ"	C) One God and Father — The Church's Ultimate Source
Prayer of Response
Offerings Luke 21:1-4	Conclusion:	"Salvation in Christ necessarily entails solidarity with others who in like manner have been incorporated into the spiritual organism we know as the body of Christ. Our true identity, then, is both as individuals and as members of a collective body known as the church." -Sam Storms, Packer on the Christian Life
*Song of Response Yet Not I But Through Christ In Me
*Benediction *As you are able, please stand. Children ages 4-5 are dismissed to Children's Church.
