Order of Worship	Notes	Quotes
Prelude	Introduction:	“Christians too often see depression as a sign of weakness or a lack of spirituality. As a result, people are unable to be honest about their real experiences of life; instead, they live behind a super-spiritual mask of false happiness. Sometimes depression is sin or a result of sin, but sometimes it is an appropriate, God-given reaction to other people’s sin and the brokenness and evil in the world. Sometimes it becomes an illness. God calls us to be realists. This means that we often live with two emotions at once...We are to be a people who, this side of glory, will be ‘sorrowful yet always rejoicing’ (2 Corinthians 6:10).” -Richard Winter, In Covenant - “The Roots of Sorrow”
*Call to Worship Psalm 96:1-6
*Prayer of Approach *Songs of Praise Your Grace Is Enough Great Is Thy Faithfulness	I. The Prophet Cast Down A) Surprising observations
Scripture Reading Psalm 13	B) Likely explanations	“The main art in the matter of spiritual living is to know how to handle yourself. You have to take yourself in hand, you have to address yourself, preach to yourself, question yourself. You must say to your soul: ‘Why art thou cast down? – what business have you to be disquieted? You must turn on yourself, upbraid yourself, condemn yourself, exhort yourself, and say to yourself: ‘Hope thou in God’ – instead of muttering in this depressed, unhappy way. And then you must go on to remind yourself of God, Who God is, and what God is and what God has done, and what God has pledged Himself to do. Then having done that, end on this great note: defy yourself, and defy other people, and defy the devil and the whole world...” -Martyn Lloyd-Jones (1899-1981), Spiritual Depression
Prayer of Confession
*Song of Assurance Thy Mercy My God	II. The Prophet Lifted Up A) Patient provision
Scripture Reading Matthew 11:25-30		“Sometimes a light surprises the Christian while he sings; It is the Lord Who rises with healing in His wings: When comforts are declining, He grants the soul again A season of clear shining, to cheer it after the rain.” -William Cowper (1731-1800)
Prayer of Intercession	B) Perspective restored
