THE CHRISTMAS STORY

LUKE 2:1-7

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

All sing:

Away in a manger,
no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus
laid down his sweet head.

The stars in the sky
looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus,
asleep on the hay.

Words: Anon.

Music: Away in a Manger, James R. Murray

LUKE 2:8-14

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

All sing:

Angels we have heard on high sweetly singing o’er the plains,
and the mountains in reply
echoing their joyous strains.

Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Words: French Carol; Trans. Crown of Jesus

Music: Gloria, French Carol Medley; Arr. Edward Shippen Barnes

LUKE 2:15-20

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

All sing:

The first Noel, the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
in fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
on a cold winter’s night that was so deep.

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
born is the King of Israel.

Words: English Carol

Music: The First Noel, English Carol; Harm. John Stainer

FEASTING AT GOD'S TABLE

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

You are invited to meet the Christ Child in this Holy Feast and therein to have your deepest hunger satisfied. Everyone, without exception, is invited to come to the Lord's Table. You do not have to be a member of a church to come; all are welcome!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Compassionate God,
trusting in your love for us,
we bring our prayers of confession.

God of grace and truth,
you give the gift of yourself,
but we are often caught up
in our own gifts given and received.

You offer us new life
in the baby born in Bethlehem,
but we cloak that birth in sentiment
and ignore the cost of new life.

You shine in the world,
but we dwell on the darkness;
you came to us in flesh and blood,
but we often fail to see you
in the human lives around us.

Forgive what we have been,
shape who we are,
and direct who we shall be.

Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Do not be afraid!
Hear the good news of great joy for all people:
a savior has been born this night for you!

Nothing in the past, present, or future
can stand between us and God.

This is the good news:
God has heard our confession.

In the name of Jesus Christ,
you are forgiven.

In the name of Jesus Christ,
you are forgiven.

Glory to God!

Amen.

OFFERING OUR GIFTS TO GOD

When you make a gift to First Church this Christmas, your gift is a response to that greatest gift God has given to us. If you would like to make a gift to our Christmas Offering in support of the work of Impacto Comunitario, please be sure to write "Christmas Offering" on your gift and place it in the plate as it passes.*

OFFERTORY

O Holy Night

O holy night! the stars are brightly shining,
it is the night of our dear Savior's birth;
long lay the world in sin and error pining,
till he appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.
Fall on your knees! Oh, hear the angel voices,
O night divine, O night when Christ was born.
Truly he taught us to love one another;
his law is love and his gospel is peace.
Chains shall he break,
for the slave is our brother,
and in his name all oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
let all within us praise his holy name.
Christ is the Lord, then ever, ever praise we.
His power and glory evermore proclaim.

Words: Placide Cappeau; Trans. John Sullivan Dwight

Music: Adolphe Adam

* THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.

You created light out of darkness and brought forth life on the earth.

You formed us in your image
and breathed into us the breath of life.

When we turned away, and our love failed,
your love remained steadfast.

You delivered us from captivity,
made covenant to be our sovereign God,
and spoke to us through your prophets.

In the fullness of time
you gave your only Son Jesus Christ to be our Savior, and at his birth the angels sang glory to you in the highest and peace to your people on earth.

And so, we bow in holy splendor before the wonder of your incarnation,
and join with the heavenly host in their unending hymn,
praising and glorifying you, saying:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.
As Mary and Joseph went from Galilee to Bethlehem
and there found no room,
so Jesus went from Galilee to Jerusalem
and was despised and rejected.

As in the poverty of a stable Jesus was born,
so by the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection
you gave birth to your Church,
delivered us from slavery to sin and death,
and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

As your Word became flesh, born of woman, on that night long ago, so, on the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said:
“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:
“Drink from this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice,
in union with Christ’s offering for us
as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come to earth again.
Great the mystery of God’s grace;
great the mystery of our faith.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
that we may be for the world the body of Christ,
redeemed by his blood.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other,
and one in ministry to all the world,
until Christ comes in final victory,
and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church,
all honor and glory is yours, almighty God,
now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our God in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom,
the power,
and the glory, forever.
Amen.

RECEIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

We invite you to receive communion by coming forward when directed. The minister will place the bread in your open hand, saying, "The body of Christ given for you," to which you respond, "Amen." You will then move to the server with the tray. Help yourself to a cup from the tray as the server says, "The blood of Christ, shed for you," to which you respond, "Amen." Move to the altar rail or to your seat to eat and drink.

HYMNS DURING RECEIVING

Silent Night, Holy Night

Silent night, holy night,

Son of God, love's pure light;
radiant beams from thy holy face
with the dawn of redeeming grace.

Jesus, Lord, at thy birth,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

wondrous star, lend thy light;

CHRISTMAS OFFERING

This Christmas, strengthen connection and share hope, dignity, and love with families through Impacto Comunitario, a United Methodist community ministry in west San Antonio.

As we prepare to celebrate Christmas, we invite you to participate in our Christmas Offering to benefit Impacto Comunitario as it provides practical support and life-changing care to those who need it most. Impacto is a United Methodist ministry of hope, dignity, and love in West San Antonio, which exists to reach hearts and meet needs.

Every week, Impacto serves over 200 households—children, single moms, immigrants, and families who rely on the generosity of supporters to receive essential items such as diapers, clothes, a warm meal, education, and health support. They offer English classes, GED and computer-skills instruction, adult education, community health-worker training, and practical resources for families, including food, diapers, and baby supplies for new mothers.

By giving to our Christmas Offering, you are providing relief to a mother who worries about whether she can care for her newborn; you are offering a child the compassion of warmth and nourishment; and you are giving families a chance to build a brighter future through education and community support. We believe that each gift—no matter how small—offers stability, care, and dignity to those who need these most. In a season when many are struggling, your contribution becomes a tangible expression of God's love and hope.

You can make a gift by dropping a check marked "Christmas Offering" in the offering basket, by mailing your offering to the church office, or by giving online when you select "005-Christmas Offering" from the drop-down menu or use the QR code provided here.
