

The Persistent Neighbor

- I. A Different Kind of Prayer Life

- II. The Radical Invitation

- III. Keep Knocking

- IV. The Power of Shameless Audacity

- V. Praying with Childlike Faith

LIFEgroup Questions:

1. What do you think the disciples saw in Jesus' prayer life that made them ask, "Lord, teach us to pray?"
2. Why do you think Jesus taught His followers to address God as "Father," and what does that reveal about our relationship with Him?
3. In the parable of the neighbor at midnight, what stands out to you about the person who keeps knocking and asking?
4. Jesus says the man received help because of his "shameless audacity." What do you think that kind of boldness looks like in our prayers today? What holds you back?
5. What is one area of your life where you might need to practice more persistent, bold, yet childlike prayer this week?