

Groups Guide

Multigenerational worship and discipleship are at the heart of who we are.

Welcome to our Groups Guide for Spring 2026! My hope is that this resource helps you easily find your place in a discipleship group this season. We believe everyone can benefit from connecting in a Sunday Morning Group and a Midweek Group or D-Group. Whatever your stage of life, there's a group where you can belong and grow.

At Forest Hills, multigenerational worship and discipleship are at the heart of who we are. We love seeing generations come together to study God's Word, encourage one another, and grow in our love for Jesus. Our groups are one of the primary ways we live that out at FHBC.

Take some time to look through all the groups available this spring. This guide is your go to resource for everything happening in our discipleship ministry. If you have questions or need help finding the right place to jump in, I'd love to help.

We're excited to see how the Lord is going to work through all our groups this spring!

OUR MISSION

Forest Hills' mission is to glorify God by making Gospel-centered disciples who LOVE, GROW, SERVE, and GO.

Sunday Morning Groups

Sunday Morning Groups are weekly groups that are designed to be centered on deep, thoughtful Bible teaching that encourages meaningful discussion and real-life application. They're a place where authentic relationships are built—where you'll find encouragement, connection, and care in every season of life. Whether you're new to faith or have been walking with Jesus for years, you'll find a group to belong and grow. All of our groups meet at 9:45am in various locations around the campus and are organized by age, gender, stage of life, and more.

Midweek Groups

Midweek Groups meet seasonally and are designed to dive into specific topics and biblical truths that equip disciples to love, grow, serve, and go in their everyday lives. Each session is practical and rooted in God's Word—whether it's exploring a book of the Bible, strengthening different types of relationships, or learning how to live out your faith in today's world. These groups offer a short-term commitment and a great opportunity to grow in your understanding of Scripture while connecting with others. Our Midweek Groups offer something for every age!

D-Groups

D-Groups are intentional, 4-6 person gender-specific groups, dedicated to transformational growth through studying God's word, prayer, and accountability with the purpose of multiplying faithful disciples of Christ. Each group meets weekly or every other week for one year before multiplying into new groups. The format of a D-Group is not a teacher-student model, but a group discussion. Each group is encouraged to utilize the H.E.A.R. method in studying the Bible individually and use that as a guide for their discussion as they meet together.

CHRISTIAN LIVING TRACK

NOT MY JESUS

Matt Longworth | 6-7:15pm | C103

To know the real Jesus, we must see Him through the pages of the Bible. This Jesus doesn't change based on our feelings or opinions; He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Only this Jesus can save and transform our lives. In this Bible study, you will identify ways that many misunderstand Jesus by comparing the Jesus of Scripture to counterfeit versions shaped by preferences, opinions, and culture.

D-GROUPS

Are you longing to grow deeper in God's Word while building meaningful connections and accountability with others? Consider starting or joining a D-Group— a small, gender-specific intentional gathering of 4-6 people who meet weekly to study Scripture, pray, and encourage one another in living out the Gospel. Using FHBC's Bible reading plan (or any other), these groups are designed to help you grow spiritually and multiply your impact by making disciples. Whether you meet at home, in a coffee shop, or at church, the goal is the same: transformational growth through God's Word, community, and intentional discipleship. These groups meet for one year and then multiply to make new groups. Ready to take a step of faith and start your journey? Register your group today and be part of what God is doing!

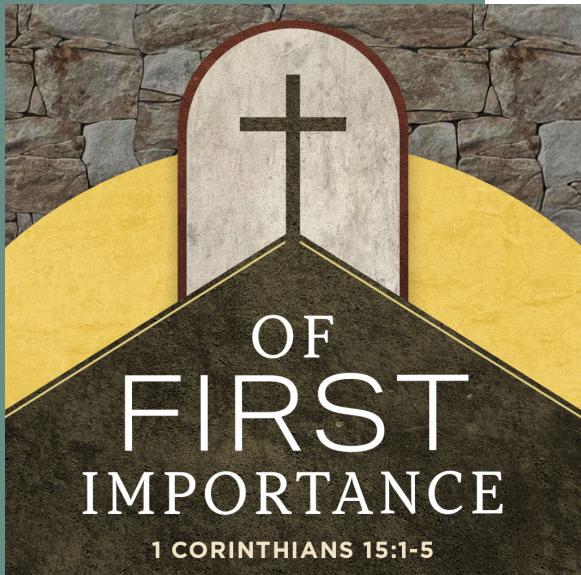

“Joining a D-group was a great way to be intentional in growing in faith with fellow sisters in Christ. D-groups are also beautiful opportunities to experience accountability and grace in equal measures. , ,
